

THE ATLANTA CONSTITUTION.

VOL. XVIII.

ATLANTA, GA. TUESDAY MORNING AUGUST 31 1886

PRICE FIVE CENTS

Railroad Company.

TO ALL POINTS

N & E

Elegant Coaches run

Washington

Sleeping Cars—

NEW YORK,

WASHINGTON,

Railroad time one P.M.

WILMINGTON,

BALTIMORE,

NEW YORK,

Philadelphia

BOSTON,

NEW YORK,

MACON MIRRORED.

HAPPENINGS OF THE DAY IN THE CENTRAL CITY.

A Scared Darkey—A Detective Work—Arrested for Pillaging—A Pickpocket—A Session Against At the Jail—A Fight in Rutland—Other News and Items of Interest.

MACON, Ga., August 30.—[Special.]—This morning at an early hour, Officer Holmes saw a darky come out of an alley between Mulberry and Walnut streets, and his actions were so peculiar that the officer ordered him to halt. Instead of doing so the darky took to his heels, running toward Fourth street at the top of his speed. Just before he reached Fourth there was an explosion like a heavy pistol shot, just in his rear, which quickened his speed. The officer tripped over a crossing and fell, but not until he had called out to Officer Murphy on the next corner to "stop that man."

Murphy ran across the street and cried halt, but the negro ran to a high board fence, which he attempted to climb. Just as he reached the fence Murphy brought his pistol to bear on him and caught the frightened fellow by the collar just as Holmes came up. The negro was taken to the jail, and he was known to be his name first as Alex Menard, from a place near Cochran, where he had been at work. He afterwards said his name was Davis, from Jones county, and that he was here expecting some things his aunt had sent him. He had his shoes tied together and hung over his shoulders, and proved to be a runner of the first order. His conduct was so suspicious that he was held for safe keeping.

A Fight in Rutland.

MACON, Ga., August 30.—[Special.]—Two white men, one named Robert Bruce and one named Tom Lee, got into a quarrel about mischief done to one's crop by the other's pigs. There is no fence there, and it seems Bruce went to see about the matter, but Lee proved uncompromising, and Bruce drove off followed by Lee who still kept up the fuss. Bruce at last stopped and said: "Tom, you ought not to follow me that way. Go away and let me alone."

Lee kept on when Bruce averted and advanced toward him and was received by a fearful blow from a fence rail which fractured his skull. Dr. Lancaster says that he will hardly live through the night.

Technological Mass Meeting.

MACON, Ga., August 30.—[Special.]—Today at 4 p. m., a mass meeting of citizens was called to meet in the arena house to discuss the matter of locating the school of technology in or near Macon. The meeting was well attended, and those present seemed to be enthusiastic on the subject. A plan was inaugurated for a thorough canvass of the city by wards, the sub-committee, comprising the best men in the city, to report at a meeting to be held next week.

The present committee appears to be busily at work, and will see to it that nothing is left undone to accomplish their purpose of securing the school for Macon. The idea of utilizing the laboratory property seems to be the favorite one.

Commissioners' Meeting.

MACON, Ga., August 30.—[Special.]—The county commissioners met today and discussed the plans for the Robt. Howe buildings. The cottage system was selected as the most convenient.

The plans for the buildings are in the office of Clerk Smith. The cottages will contain from two to four rooms each, and will be neat, attractive and possess every convenience.

There will be a room for the superintendent, for the dining and stove room and enough rooms to accommodate a hundred students.

There will be a hospital proper, where the sick will be kept and treated until they are well.

The present buildings now in use are very common and inadequate for the purposes for which they are used, and the new one cannot be erected any too soon.

A Detective's Work.

MACON, Ga., August 30.—[Special.]—A detective from the Central City agency, went on a scout for Sunday liquor sellers, and succeeded in having Mr. Fitzgerald, L. Greenwood, Moss Green and Pete Harman up before the revenue. Fitzgerald and Greenwood were fined fifty dollars each, and Green and Harman were fined. Fitzgerald was foaled into selling a drink to a man who claimed he had a chill yesterday. The cases against Green and Harman are conclusive.

Arrested for Pillaging.

MACON, Ga., August 30.—[Special.]—For some time Mr. Clark has been missing various articles about his store, and he had reason to believe that Ben McCoy was the guilty party, and called on Officer Drew, who arrested Ben and put him in the barracks.

A Pickpocket.

MACON, Ga., August 30.—[Special.]—Dr. W. B. Dix, of Albany, has been missing various articles about his store, and he had reason to believe that Ben McCoy was the guilty party, and called on Officer Drew, who arrested Ben and put him in the barracks.

A Serious Accident.

MACON, Ga., August 30.—[Special.]—This morning at 4 a. m. a colored boy, employed by Reynolds, the gasfitter, was cutting holes in the lower story of Pu Holt's store. He accidentally placed his foot on a weak place in the floor and it gave way, precipitating him into the cellar several feet below. He was pretty seriously bruised, but not dangerous hurt.

At the Jail.

MACON, Ga., August 30.—[Special.]—The doors have all been repaired, and the jail is as good as ever. The dents made by the mob in the outer doors remain to attest their ferocity. Jake Robinson is anxious for a speedy trial. He has been in jail for two weeks, and was separated from the front yard from the jail yard. Humphries clothing and bedding was bundled up neatly and sent to Milledgeville to-day.

After Dr. Head.

MACON, Ga., August 30.—[Special.]—Mr. M. Gruber, bondsmen for the Dr. Head, accused of several crimes, when he arrived in town today in response to a telegram from the central city detective agency, saying they had his man. This dispatch was based on what was considered the likeness between Dr. W. Smith and Dr. Head. Mr. Gruber was much disappointed when he found the mistake.

Dots and Dashes.

MACON, Ga., August 30.—[Special.]—Dr. W. B. Dix, a colored boy, who is in court with the telephone wire near the college. It is a man avis in these parts.

A bottle of catup exploded at Mr. John Burnett's residence on Elm street yesterday, alarming the family.

Bob Callow, for wife, was up before 3 a. m. in city today, through the intervention of his wife, who was only sentenced to pay the costs in the case.

Rev. Mr. Davis was said from being run over by an Expressman, who was carried away by the prompt action of Officer Dan Thomas.

Officer Belton Jones caught a fat possum in the Ralston Hall ruins today.

Personal Paragraphs.

MACON, Ga., August 30.—[Special.]—Mr. Ed Mitchell, of Vineville, is the happy papa of a baby girl, born yesterday.

Mrs. McElroy, who has been visiting Miss Eleanor Seppie, Vineville, returned to her home in Columbus today.

Miss Anna Holmes has returned to her home in Atlanta, after a pleasant visit to Miss J. G. Holmes, this city.

Mr. J. S. Carew was called to her home in Tampa, Fla., by a telegram, announcing the illness of her husband with typhoid fever.

Rev. Mr. Wingate will preach his farewell sermon at St. Paul's church Sunday. He will go north to live.

Do not go to the country without a bottle of ANGOSTURA BITTERS to flavor your Soda and Lemonade, and keep your digestive organs in order. Be sure it is the genuine ANGOSTURA of world-wide fame, and manufactured only by Dr. J. G. B. SIEGERT & SONS.

COLUMBUS CHRONICLES.

Sudden Death of Mr. Sedbury—A Fire Alarm.

COLUMBUS, Ga., August 30.—[Special.]—A very sad and sudden death occurred here to-night. A few minutes after 8 o'clock a alarm of fire was sounded. Mr. H. B. Sedbury, veteran member of Young America fire company, was sitting on the street, and jumped up and ran hurriedly toward the engine house. When within ten or fifteen steps of the house he fell heavily to the sidewalk. Those who saw him fall sent at once for a physician, but when he arrived Mr. Sedbury was dead. He had been subject to heart disease, and the exertion and excitement had doubtless killed him. He was about forty-seven years old and leaves a wife and several children.

Mr. G. E. Brooks, of Birmingham, Ala., and Miss Jennie Key, of Lively, Ala., were married at 1 o'clock today and left for the home of the groom. The bride is a cousin of Bishop Key.

Mr. William Davis, of Stewart county, died last night.

Rev. B. W. Bussey left tonight for Bruswick, where he goes to take charge of the Baptist church.

A little one year old son of Mr. Clark Prather got a hold of a piece of meat on which there was "Rough on Rats" today and ate it. It took the best skill of two physicians to save his life.

The remains of Edward Kohn, who died in Gainesville this morning, were brought here tonight for interment. He was a young man, and belonged to Card's orchestra.

The alarm of fire tonight was caused by the burning of a pile of barrels on the east corner.

The Columbus and Oswickee gun clubs will meet in friendly contest again on Tuesday, September 7.

The Knights of Labor of this city held a mass meeting tonight and endorsed Hon. W. A. Little for the legislature, and determined to ask Dr. J. N. Gilbert to make the race against Hon. J. N. Chappell, democratic, nominating the ticket with Captain Little.

There is no fence there, and it seems on the part of the negro boy named Simmons, who was known to harbor

the TRUTH OF THE MATTER.

It seems that a negro boy had been implicated in a robbery of Loo Chong's store, for appearance to which charge he was out of jail under bond. He was embittered against Loo Chong for pushing the matter in the court, and chancing across dynamite and the knowledge how to use it made the attempt, which failed of its purpose, simply because Loo Chong was on a visit and not a bed. A cat lying on the Chinaman's couch was instantly killed. The court has begun, and are pushing a determined investigation of the affair.

SENT TO PENITENTIARY.

An Unbrotherly Scene in Forsyth Superior Court.

CUMMING, Ga., August 31.—[Special.]—Court adjourned here Saturday. The grand jury reported the court house and jail to be in good condition, and well kept, the paupers of the county to be well cared for, and the books of all the county officers correct and neatly kept. The county is twelve hundred dollars in debt.

Merger Shackelford has returned from an enjoyable trip to Mt. Ayr.

Miss Sallie Tucker is back in Albany, after an extended visit north. She visited Chautauqua, New York city and other points of interest.

The Cadmen club, a literary organization, which includes among its members some of the most prominent men in the state, will meet on Monday night at the residence of Mrs. Louisa Warren. These meetings are always very interesting and instructive.

Merger Shackelford has returned from an enjoyable trip to Mt. Ayr.

Miss Lila Coley, a popular young lady from Montezuma, is now in Albany, where she will make her future home.

Montezuma is a small town in some of Albany's public spirited citizens to revive the public library, which has been in a state of lethargy for several months.

The delegates to the Sigma Alpha Epsilon convention, which convened in Atlanta last Tuesday, have returned home, and are enthusiastic over the kindness and hospitality of their Atlanta friends.

SUCCESSFULLY PERFORMED.

A Dead Bone Removed from the Head of Ashley Johnson.

NEW HOLLAND SERINGS, Aug. 30.—[Special.]—In April last little Ashley Johnson, son of Mr. W. E. Johnson, of the Constitution, received a severe blow on the head at the hands of Leon Clark, who was riding in the same car the relays coaster. He suffered great pain, and for many days it was thought he would die. As soon as he was able to be moved the physicians recommended that he be brought here for the summer. He has been benefited very much though the wound would not heal. Dr. Willis Westcott, who is a specialist in the fracture of the skull, with the trouble with the fracture, and that another operation was necessary. Yesterday Dr. J. W. Westmoreland, Sr., and Dr. J. W. Westmoreland, Jr., Dr. D. H. Howell, of Atlanta, and Dr. J. W. Bailey, of Gainesville performed the operation. It was a fine piece of surgical work and was successfully done. The little fellow stood it manfully and is getting along nicely.

Two negro convicts at work in a cut on the Georgia Midland about one mile south of the Pine mountain and just within the Talbot county line were crushed by a land slide one day last week. One of them was killed instantly and the other was buried and is presumed to be dead.

An injured man was taken to the hospital and the negroes were sent to the sheriff's office.

The following, among others, were the resolutions passed:

Resolved, That the delegates and alternates herein provided for go to a state constitutional convention and untrammelled and with one object in view: to further the best interests of the party in this county and in the district.

Resolved, That an immediate and general exhortation be issued to all the colored people in the state to be on the alert to expose and denounce all the efforts of the negroes to divide the colored people.

The following, among others, were the resolutions passed:

Resolved, That the delegates and alternates herein provided for go to a state constitutional convention and untrammelled and with one object in view: to further the best interests of the party in this county and in the district.

Resolved, That an immediate and general exhortation be issued to all the colored people in the state to be on the alert to expose and denounce all the efforts of the negroes to divide the colored people.

The following, among others, were the resolutions passed:

Resolved, That the delegates and alternates herein provided for go to a state constitutional convention and untrammelled and with one object in view: to further the best interests of the party in this county and in the district.

Resolved, That an immediate and general exhortation be issued to all the colored people in the state to be on the alert to expose and denounce all the efforts of the negroes to divide the colored people.

The following, among others, were the resolutions passed:

Resolved, That the delegates and alternates herein provided for go to a state constitutional convention and untrammelled and with one object in view: to further the best interests of the party in this county and in the district.

Resolved, That an immediate and general exhortation be issued to all the colored people in the state to be on the alert to expose and denounce all the efforts of the negroes to divide the colored people.

The following, among others, were the resolutions passed:

Resolved, That the delegates and alternates herein provided for go to a state constitutional convention and untrammelled and with one object in view: to further the best interests of the party in this county and in the district.

Resolved, That an immediate and general exhortation be issued to all the colored people in the state to be on the alert to expose and denounce all the efforts of the negroes to divide the colored people.

The following, among others, were the resolutions passed:

Resolved, That the delegates and alternates herein provided for go to a state constitutional convention and untrammelled and with one object in view: to further the best interests of the party in this county and in the district.

Resolved, That an immediate and general exhortation be issued to all the colored people in the state to be on the alert to expose and denounce all the efforts of the negroes to divide the colored people.

The following, among others, were the resolutions passed:

Resolved, That the delegates and alternates herein provided for go to a state constitutional convention and untrammelled and with one object in view: to further the best interests of the party in this county and in the district.

Resolved, That an immediate and general exhortation be issued to all the colored people in the state to be on the alert to expose and denounce all the efforts of the negroes to divide the colored people.

The following, among others, were the resolutions passed:

Resolved, That the delegates and alternates herein provided for go to a state constitutional convention and untrammelled and with one object in view: to further the best interests of the party in this county and in the district.

Resolved, That an immediate and general exhortation be issued to all the colored people in the state to be on the alert to expose and denounce all the efforts of the negroes to divide the colored people.

The following, among others, were the resolutions passed:

Resolved, That the delegates and alternates herein provided for go to a state constitutional convention and untrammelled and with one object in view: to further the best interests of the party in this county and in the district.

Resolved, That an immediate and general exhortation be issued to all the colored people in the state to be on the alert to expose and denounce all the efforts of the negroes to divide the colored people.

The following, among others, were the resolutions passed:

Resolved, That the delegates and alternates herein provided for go to a state constitutional convention and untrammelled and with one object in view: to further the best interests of the party in this county and in the district.

Resolved, That an immediate and general exhortation be issued to all the colored people in the state to be on the alert to expose and denounce all the efforts of the negroes to divide the colored people.

The following, among others, were the resolutions passed:

Resolved, That the delegates and alternates herein provided for go to a state constitutional convention and untrammelled and with one

THE CONSTITUTION

PUBLISHED DAILY AND WEEKLY

ATLANTA, GEORGIA.

THE DAILY CONSTITUTION IS PUBLISHED EVERY DAY IN THE WEEK, AND IS DELIVERED BY CARRIERS IN THE CITY, OR MAILED, POSTAGE FREE, AT $1 PER MONTH, $2.50 FOR THREE MONTHS, OR $10 A YEAR.

THE CONSTITUTION IS FOR SALE ON ALL TRAINS LEAVING OUT OF ATLANTA, AND AT NEWS STANDS IN THE PRINCIPAL SOUTHERN CITIES.

ADVERTISING RATES DEPEND ON LOCATION IN THE PAPER, AND WILL BE FURNISHED ON APPLICATION.

COPIES CONTAINING IMPORTANT NEWS, BRIGHTENED FROM ALL PARTS OF THE COUNTRY.

ADDRESS ALL LETTERS AND TELEGRAMS, AND MAKE ALL DRAFTS OR CHECKS PAYABLE TO

THE CONSTITUTION,

Atlanta, Ga.

THE TRADE ISSUE.

THE CONSTITUTION TRADE ISSUE will not appear tomorrow as first announced, as its publication is postponed for a while to give the merchants greater advantage in the advertisement of their fall stocks, which are now being rapidly completed. The postponement is only for a short while, and the certain date of the TRADE ISSUE's appearance will be announced soon.

ATLANTA, GA., AUGUST 31, 1886.

Indications for Atlanta and Georgia, taken at 1 o'clock, a.m.

Local rains, followed by fair weather, nearly stationary temperature. Georgia, Florida, North Carolina and South Carolina: Local rains, followed by fair weather; variable winds, nearly stationary temperature. For Alabama and Mississippi: Fair weather, northerly winds, nearly stationary temperature.

THE western cold wave is due in New York. We may get a touch of it.

ENGLAND announces her intention to subjugate Burmah in order to protect India.

CHEVREU, the great French scientist, celebrates his one-hundredth birthday today. He is still in good working trim.

BULGARIA is to take revenge on Russia. An anti-Russian cabinet has been formed and subjects of the czar are to be expelled from the country.

THE report that our special envoy to Mexico, Mr. Sedgewick, has been on a drunken spree since he arrived in that country.

THE presidential party—or at least the gentlemen connected with it—have strolled their pantaloons in their boots and gone into the woods on a week's hunt. Meanwhile the ladies will remain at their hotels.

MUCH complaint comes from the people around Thickety Mountain, South Carolina, about the aggressive work of the Mormon elders. All the worst elements of society have rallied to the Mormons, and make common cause against law and order. Intentions have been given of a resort to decisive measures on the part of the decent citizens.

THE congressional convention of this, the ninth district, will assemble in Atlanta tomorrow to nominate the next representative of the district. As Judge Stewart, of Griffin, has more than the necessary number of votes to nominate, the work of the convention will be brief and harmonious.

THE Columbus Enquirer-Sun, speaking of Captain's letter, says:

We have just talked with one of our most prominent and reliable citizens who has spent several days in Atlanta. He made active use of the opportunity to speak and associate himself with prohibition on that day of prosperity, as judging by what he says, there is not much room for complaints as found in the above. He says that if Atlanta is experiencing any serious depression from the change he could not discover it. He states that the places formerly occupied as barrooms are now used as green grocers, provision stores and such. He says that people still visit them and have their small change with the occupants, but it is for something for their own and their family's substantial benefit.

A Plucky Jailer.

One reason why lynchers generally have their way is because the officers of the law allow themselves to be bulldozed. One determined officer, with his wits about him, is a match for an ordinary mob.

The other night a crowd of men at Hernando, Miss., went to the jailer and shouted: "Your keys or your life!" The jailer replied: "Take my life." Of course they let him alone. They did not want his life. They simply wanted to break into the jail. The demoralized crowd battered away for a while with a sledge-hammer on the jail door, and then left in disgust, without effecting their purpose.

In this case one man's fidelity saved the life of a prisoner, saved the community from the disgrace of lynch law, and set a good example for sheriffs and jailers everywhere. Mobs do not care to bother such men.

An American Outrage.

We have heard so much concerning the outrages perpetrated by Canada and Mexico upon our citizens, that it is refreshing to hear a different story. It seems that we do not always stick to the strict letter of the law.

When Captain Devine, of the Massachusetts schooner Legal Tender, was arrested and his vessel seized by a Canadian officer, last week, the captain made sail, and, after getting some distance from the shore, gave the officer his choice, to be thrown overboard or to go back in his own boat. The officer very sensibly chose the latter alternative, and rowed for land, swearing with all his might at the impudent skipper.

After this flagrant defiance of the law, Captain Devine sailed in hot haste for Cape Cod. Now, just such things stir up international troubles and lead to serious results. The yankee captain was wrong, and yet there is a disposition on this side of the line to applaud him, and to ask the Canadians "what they are going to do about it?"

Prohibition Politics in Pennsylvania.

The prohibitionists of Pennsylvania have placed a state ticket in the field.

Some of their methods are attracting attention. The candidate for governor is Mr. Charles S. Wolfe, a well known lawyer. Mr. Wolfe is an active campaigner and delivers speeches wherever he can secure a hearing and his fee. The fee is an important business feature and has excited much unfavorable criticism. Mr. Wolfe admits that he charges twenty-five dollars for each speech, but he claims that he does it because it is unfair to his law practice to devote so much time to the campaign without compensating him. He therefore turns over half of his prohibition collections to his partner.

The prohibitionists have nominated a negro for congressman at large. They had available white men, but nothing but a negro would serve their purpose. It appears that heretofore no negro has been nominated for any office of real prominence by any party. The new dodge of the prohibitionists is therefore considered a splendid stroke of policy. Time will show.

Only a Drunken Frolic.

It is to be hoped that the cable will let up on Prince Alexander's abdication. At first it was a sensation of considerable magnitude, but it now seems to have been a ridiculous farce.

According to our latest advices, Alexander did not abdicate. A gang of tipsy fellows cornered him in his palace, and the prince wrote "God Save Bulgaria" and signed his name. The conspirators had so much "tangle-foot" in them that they were unable to read the paper. They took it for granted that it was an abdication, and so announced it.

One thing, however, shows that the prince was in a panic. After he had been escorted across the frontier he struck out for his old German home, and did not pause until he received assurances that all was again serene in Bulgaria. Now that he has pulled himself together, and finds that his head is not in danger, he begins to talk and act like a sovereign.

Bulgaria should try prohibition. No country is safe where a crowd of jolly fellows are liable at any time to get on a spree, and overturn the throne and chase their ruler over the border.

We Are Not English.

The St. Louis Republican says the idea that England is the mother country of the United States is all a mistake, and proceeds to figure in support of its assertion.

In other words, we are not "English, you know." We might have been at one time, but we are not now. The 16,000,000 immigrants who have come to our shores since 1820, with their descendants, have transformed us. Our English origin has vanished into the air. The English mixture is exceeded by both the German and the Irish elements. This is especially true of the New England section. The Republican says that the only considerable region where the English stock is still the largest and dominant element is the south. The Republican adds:

"Of the 16,000,000 foreigners who have come to the United States, more than one-half are settled in the southern states. The foreign, or, rather, the non-English element which overwhelmingly predominates in the north, is hardly appreciable in the south, and the latter section remains English to this day, and the only English part of the country."

HENRY IRVING and Ellen Terry have sailed for Europe. Thank heaven, we still have Mrs. James Brown Potter.

SEDGWICK has been "taking in the town," Sedgwick, dear Sedgwick, come home.

CONGRESSMAN RICHARDSON, of Murfreesboro, Tenn., writes to the Nashville Union to deny the Washington correspondent's interesting gossip as to Miss Murfree. It seems the enterprising correspondent drew entirely upon his fine imagination. The Richardson family have not seen Miss Murfree in six years and have no correspondence with her. She has not lived in Murfreesboro in five or six years.

TO THE PHILADELPHIA TIMES: Please give us a rest on Mayor Smith.

NOW they say John L. Sullivan is a philanthropist and gives lots to charity. As none of it goes to his wife and child the story seems a wee bit tough.

CLEOPATRA's needle continues to crumble in spite of its paraffine dressing. The sealing and crumbing of the obelisk is caused by the disintegration of hornblende in the granite. The president of the Central park commission has decided to have experts examine the obelisk and determine upon some means of arresting its decay. The changing climate of New York, the frosts of winter and the heat of summer, crumble the famous monument that withstood centuries of Egyptian heat and dryness.

After fifty-seven years on the stage an English actress is about to retire. We will hear of this ancient dame again in thirty or forty years.

THEY say Sarah Bernhardt is growing thinner. A freak! a freak! here's a freak!

JUDGE WOODDIE STRONG submits to the readers of the New York World a plan for making rain fall on the unjust whenever his farm demands it. He proposes to send up wooden kegs of nitro-glycerine attached to balloons with a wire running from the keg to the earth. When the balloon gets up to the rain clouds, an electric spark will be set along the wire to explode the keg and burst the clouds. As the clouds are shaken the rain would descend in a shower. The judge thinks we could have rain stations and materialized clerks of the weather to control and distribute the fall of rain. It sounds sacrilegious, but doubtless some one will experiment on the plan.

A BAR HARBOR dressmaker has fallen heir to a hundred million dollars. Unfortunately the property is in England.

THE Queen Regent of Spain has conferred upon her prospective subject, Mme. Nilsson, the Grand Cross of the Order of Benevolence. She has also decorated Sarasota, the great Spanish violinist, and has had her house renovated and repainted, and had lime sprinkled in the trash barrel.

PERSONS AND THINGS.

THE turreted like Garfield monument of white stone is nearing the heavens, and when completed will be the highest point on Lake Erie. It is likely that the work will be finished this year and it will be open to 1888 before the vault will be receivable. Less than a third of the design is done.

SUNSET COX writes to an Ohio friend: "I may come home, and may again go into the old scenes. The odor of the sadness comes over me, and it is hard to get through the hoop, etc., to fill out the scene."

Take Ireland. We lose half our population by the age of twenty. The Irish only part with thirty-five per cent. Almost one-half of their deaths are persons over forty-five.

We have this large death-rate in spite of the fact that we are the best fed, best clothed and best housed people in the world. It may be said also that as a people we have studied the sanitary conditions of existence.

What, then, is the matter? Rush, and nothing else. This is why the undertaker treads on our heels. It is a lightning express schedule from the cradle to the coffin. But we cannot slacken our speed. To "get there" is our main object, and it is the ultimate result.

Are we not all "getting there" a little too early?

Coffee trees bear cherry-like fruit, the seed of which is the coffee of commerce. Mocha coffee is the strongest and best, and is distinguished by its small light-greenish grains. Java is second best, and has large yellowish grains. When the coffee berry ripens it is gathered and dried, and then crushed between heavy rollers that remove the pulp and other membrane. Two coffee grains come from each berry. The dried pulp and leaves are used to make a beverage which is said to be richer in caffeine than ordinary coffee. The older and drier the coffee becomes in the green state, the finer grains will it have when roasted. Physicians disagree as to the wholesomeness of coffee drinking. Most doctors claim that coffee is a good drink, assaying hunger and thirst and saving bodily themes. In central Africa ground coffee is mixed with butter and eaten on bread. Dr. Kano's arctic voyagers prevented scurvy by eating freely of coffee. There are many directions for making good coffee. Here it is from an Irish health journal fifty years ago: Mix the ground coffee with half cold water as you will use for the coffee pot. Allow it to come to a boil; remove the pot from the fire and let the coffee settle. Pour off the coffee to another pot; pour as much boiling water on the grounds as you used cold water at first, and boil five minutes, then pour both together and let it settle again.

HON. THOMAS FRANCIS BAYARD, Dear Sir:

We see that Count Yugi, of Japan, is in Chicago. We hope the count and his wife will enjoy themselves during their brief stay in our midst.

ELIZABETH, N. J., is excited over a haunted house. It is a tenement, and the sights have been seen in a garret. The first disturbance was a knocking at the front and back doors at midnight. A Mrs. Decker, the first tenant, sat up two nights in succession to see if she could find the persons that knocked. She saw no one, though the moon shone brightly. Three nights in succession she dreamed that a box of gold was hidden in the garret. Accompanied by Mrs. Gerringer, another tenant of the house, Mrs. Decker searched the garret. She removed a plank near the chimney and a big yellow cat jumped out of the hole. A package of letters addressed to Mollie England, a box containing a wreath of flowers, and a goblet containing an amethyst were found in the hole. A card was also in the goblet and on it the words, "Behold, we stand at the door and knock." The goblet was placed in Mrs. Decker's mantel, but it flew across the room striking and denting the door. An incredulous railroad man went to see the wonderful goblet, but just as he reached out his hand it fell and broke. Mr. Gerringer declares the goblet shocked him like a galvanic battery when he took it from the floor. Violin and harp playing is heard at midnight on the front and back porches. The yellow cat tugged at Mrs. Decker's hair before it fled. A crazy girl was once confined in the garret and died there. A number of children are sick in the house on account of the "haunts."

"THIRTY, my dear," said Henry Pulney, "is this? We will suppose that the weather is very hot; that you have walked a long way; that you are very thirsty; that you like beer; you are passing the door of an inn, and that it occurs to you that, next to a cup of nectar, a pint of beer would be about the nicest thing in the world. Have half a pint of beer. That is thirty."

"THIRTY, my dear," said Henry Pulney, "is this? We will suppose that the weather is very hot; that you have walked a long way; that you are very thirsty; that you like beer; you are passing the door of an inn, and that it occurs to you that, next to a cup of nectar, a pint of beer would be about the nicest thing in the world. Have half a pint of beer. That is thirty."

"THIRTY, my dear," said Henry Pulney, "is this? We will suppose that the weather is very hot; that you have walked a long way; that you are very thirsty; that you like beer; you are passing the door of an inn, and that it occurs to you that, next to a cup of nectar, a pint of beer would be about the nicest thing in the world. Have half a pint of beer. That is thirty."

"THIRTY, my dear," said Henry Pulney, "is this? We will suppose that the weather is very hot; that you have walked a long way; that you are very thirsty; that you like beer; you are passing the door of an inn, and that it occurs to you that, next to a cup of nectar, a pint of beer would be about the nicest thing in the world. Have half a pint of beer. That is thirty."

"THIRTY, my dear," said Henry Pulney, "is this? We will suppose that the weather is very hot; that you have walked a long way; that you are very thirsty; that you like beer; you are passing the door of an inn, and that it occurs to you that, next to a cup of nectar, a pint of beer would be about the nicest thing in the world. Have half a pint of beer. That is thirty."

"THIRTY, my dear," said Henry Pulney, "is this? We will suppose that the weather is very hot; that you have walked a long way; that you are very thirsty; that you like beer; you are passing the door of an inn, and that it occurs to you that, next to a cup of nectar, a pint of beer would be about the nicest thing in the world. Have half a pint of beer. That is thirty."

"THIRTY, my dear," said Henry Pulney, "is this? We will suppose that the weather is very hot; that you have walked a long way; that you are very thirsty; that you like beer; you are passing the door of an inn, and that it occurs to you that, next to a cup of nectar, a pint of beer would be about the nicest thing in the world. Have half a pint of beer. That is thirty."

"THIRTY, my dear," said Henry Pulney, "is this? We will suppose that the weather is very hot; that you have walked a long way; that you are very thirsty; that you like beer; you are passing the door of an inn, and that it occurs to you that, next to a cup of nectar, a pint of beer would be about the nicest thing in the world. Have half a pint of beer. That is thirty."

"THIRTY, my dear," said Henry Pulney, "is this? We will suppose that the weather is very hot; that you have walked a long way; that you are very thirsty; that you like beer; you are passing the door of an inn, and that it occurs to you that, next to a cup of nectar, a pint of beer would be about the nicest thing in the world. Have half a pint of beer. That is thirty."

"THIRTY, my dear," said Henry Pulney, "is this? We will suppose that the weather is very hot; that you have walked a long way; that you are very thirsty; that you like beer; you are passing the door of an inn, and that it occurs to you that, next to a cup of nectar, a pint of beer would be about the nicest thing in the world. Have half a pint of beer. That is thirty."

"THIRTY, my dear," said Henry Pulney, "is this? We will suppose that the weather is very hot; that you have walked a long way; that you are very thirsty; that you like beer; you are passing the door of an inn, and that it occurs to you that, next to a cup of nectar, a pint of beer would be about the nicest thing in the world. Have half a pint of beer. That is thirty."

"THIRTY, my dear," said Henry Pulney, "is this? We will suppose that the weather is very hot; that you have walked a long way; that you are very thirsty; that you like beer; you are passing the door of an inn, and that it occurs to you that, next to a cup of nectar, a pint of beer would be about the nicest thing in the world. Have half a pint of beer. That is thirty."

"THIRTY, my dear," said Henry Pulney, "is this? We will suppose that the weather is very hot; that you have walked a long way; that you are very thirsty; that you like beer; you are passing the door of an inn, and that it occurs to you that, next to a cup of nectar, a pint of beer would be about the nicest thing in the world. Have half a pint of beer. That is thirty."

"THIRTY, my dear," said Henry Pulney, "is this? We will suppose that the weather is very hot; that you have walked a long way; that you are very thirsty; that you like beer; you are passing the door of an inn, and that it occurs to you that, next to a cup of nectar, a pint of beer would be about the nicest thing in the world. Have half a pint of beer. That is thirty."

"THIRTY, my dear," said Henry Pulney, "is this? We will suppose that the weather is very hot; that you have walked a long way; that you are very thirsty; that you like beer; you are passing the door of an inn, and that it occurs to you that, next to a cup of nectar, a pint of beer would be about the nicest thing in the world. Have half a pint of beer. That is thirty."

"THIRTY, my dear," said Henry Pulney, "is this? We will suppose that the weather is very hot; that you have walked a long way; that you are very thirsty; that you like beer; you are passing the door of an inn, and that it occurs to you that, next to a cup of nectar, a pint of beer

OVAL

TRIPOD

AND

GLASS.

5 DECATUR ST.

ARY BUILDING,

SMITH

TURER OF

ric Acid

Oil Vitrol.

CHEMICALS.

mer Walton, Atlanta, Ga

80

F COAL TAR

Materials,

and Sheathing Fals.

BROWN OF

ROOFING:

S-Fly Roofing,

VARNISHES, ETC.

St. Atlanta, Ga

ANTS WANTED:

MEN

In, Fresh DRAINED

MATERIALLY WARD.

In the

TAXES OF Particulars

All Vouchers

CREATIVE Flying news

and current doctors FREE

Fulton Street, New York

W

DGE WORKS

LINGS,

Contracting Agents

and Turn Tables,

Inga, Jails, Etc.

Tations a Specia

lant Furnished on

ian Is dawky

N TO FAIL,"

RANTS EXTRACT

—or—

BERS AND COPAIA

old, tried remedy for coughs, colds and all ailments, portable form

free from taste and speed it (frequently cured

in less time than an preparation) make

"Extract" the available remedy ever manufactured.

Each package has a red

with the signature

70

MUGGISTS.

807 mon the sat

NEW ORLEANS

LINE.

PORT VIA MONT-

sarily trains and rail-between Atlanta and

SUNDAY.

July 19th, 1886.

No. 4.

No. 52.

Daily, except

Sunday.

11 20 pm 4 25 pm

12 20 pm 5 55 pm

1 25 pm 6 25 pm

2 15 pm 7 25 pm

3 21 pm 8 40 pm

4 21 pm 9 40 pm

5 22 pm 10 45 pm

6 20 pm 11 45 pm

7 20 pm 12 45 pm

8 22 pm 1 45 pm

9 22 pm 2 45 pm

10 20 pm 3 45 pm

11 20 pm 4 45 pm

12 20 pm 5 45 pm

1 20 pm 6 45 pm

2 20 pm 7 45 pm

3 20 pm 8 45 pm

4 20 pm 9 45 pm

5 20 pm 10 45 pm

6 20 pm 11 45 pm

7 20 pm 12 45 pm

8 22 pm 1 45 pm

9 22 pm 2 45 pm

10 20 pm 3 45 pm

11 20 pm 4 45 pm

12 20 pm 5 45 pm

1 20 pm 6 45 pm

2 20 pm 7 45 pm

3 20 pm 8 45 pm

4 20 pm 9 45 pm

5 20 pm 10 45 pm

6 20 pm 11 45 pm

7 20 pm 12 45 pm

8 22 pm 1 45 pm

9 22 pm 2 45 pm

10 20 pm 3 45 pm

11 20 pm 4 45 pm

12 20 pm 5 45 pm

1 20 pm 6 45 pm

2 20 pm 7 45 pm

3 20 pm 8 45 pm

4 20 pm 9 45 pm

5 20 pm 10 45 pm

6 20 pm 11 45 pm

7 20 pm 12 45 pm

8 22 pm 1 45 pm

9 22 pm 2 45 pm

10 20 pm 3 45 pm

11 20 pm 4 45 pm

12 20 pm 5 45 pm

1 20 pm 6 45 pm

2 20 pm 7 45 pm

3 20 pm 8 45 pm

4 20 pm 9 45 pm

5 20 pm 10 45 pm

6 20 pm 11 45 pm

7 20 pm 12 45 pm

8 22 pm 1 45 pm

9 22 pm 2 45 pm

10 20 pm 3 45 pm

11 20 pm 4 45 pm

12 20 pm 5 45 pm

1 20 pm 6 45 pm

2 20 pm 7 45 pm

3 20 pm 8 45 pm

4 20 pm 9 45 pm

5 20 pm 10 45 pm

6 20 pm 11 45 pm

7 20 pm 12 45 pm

8 22 pm 1 45 pm

9 22 pm 2 45 pm

10 20 pm 3 45 pm

11 20 pm 4 45 pm

12 20 pm 5 45 pm

1 20 pm 6 45 pm

2 20 pm 7 45 pm

3 20 pm 8 45 pm

4 20 pm 9 45 pm

5 20 pm 10 45 pm

6 20 pm 11 45 pm

7 20 pm 12 45 pm

8 22 pm 1 45 pm

9 22 pm 2 45 pm

10 20 pm 3 45 pm

11 20 pm 4 45 pm

12 20 pm 5 45 pm

1 20 pm 6 45 pm

2 20 pm 7 45 pm

3 20 pm 8 45 pm

4 20 pm 9 45 pm

5 20 pm 10 45 pm

6 20 pm 11 45 pm

7 20 pm 12 45 pm

8 22 pm 1 45 pm

9 22 pm 2 45 pm

10 20 pm 3 45 pm

11 20 pm 4 45 pm

12 20 pm 5 45 pm

1 20 pm 6 45 pm

2 20 pm 7 45 pm

3 20 pm 8 45 pm

4 20 pm 9 45 pm

5 20 pm 10 45 pm

6 20 pm 11 45 pm

7 20 pm 12 45 pm

8 22 pm 1 45 pm

9 22 pm 2 45 pm

10 20 pm 3 45 pm

11 20 pm 4 45 pm

12 20 pm 5 45 pm

1 20 pm 6 45 pm

2 20 pm 7 45 pm

3 20 pm 8 45 pm

4 20 pm 9 45 pm

5 20 pm 10 45 pm

6 20 pm 11 45 pm

7 20 pm 12 45 pm

8 22 pm 1 45 pm

9 22 pm 2 45 pm

10 20 pm 3 45 pm

11 20 pm 4 45 pm

12 20 pm 5 45 pm

1 20 pm 6 45 pm

2 20 pm 7 45 pm

3 20 pm 8 45 pm

4 20 pm 9 45 pm

5 20 pm 10 45 pm

6 20 pm 11 45 pm

7 20 pm 12 45 pm

8 22 pm 1 45 pm

9 22 pm 2 45 pm

10 20 pm 3 45 pm

11 20 pm 4 45 pm

12 20 pm 5 45 pm

1 20 pm 6 45 pm

2 20 pm 7 45 pm

3 20 pm 8 45 pm

4 20 pm 9 45 pm

5 20 pm 10 45 pm

6 20 pm 11 45 pm

7 20 pm 12 45 pm

Preferred Locals.

29 PEACHTREE ST.
McBride & Co

WILL OCCUPY COX & HILL'S STORE.

No. 29 Peachtree Street, October 1st.

They are closing out the immense stock at 32

WALL STREET Regardless of Cost.

Now is your time. Bring the cash and you will see.

THE WEATHER REPORT

Daily Weather Report.

OBRENNER'S OFFICE, SIGNAL SERVICE, U. S. A.

U. S. CUSTOM HOUSE, AUGUST 20, 9:00 P. M.

All observations taken at the same moment time at each place named.

LOCAL OBSERVATIONS.

	Barometer.	Thermometer.	Wind.	Direction.	Velocity.	Rainfall.	Weather.
Augusta	29.74	70	S	Light.	.88	Thru.	Clear.
Savannah	29.75	70	SW	6	.06	Cloudy.
Jacksonville	29.82	77	SW	11	.20
Montgomery	29.83	77	SW	11	.20
New Orleans	29.85	78	NW	Light.	.00	Clear.
Gainesville	29.88	85	N	Light.	.00	Clear.
Palestine	29.93	86	N	Light.	.00	Clear.
Post Smith	29.93	79	SW	Light.	.00	Cloudy.
Shreveport	29.91	77	SW	Light.	.00	Clear.

Cotton Belt Bulletin.

Observations taken at 6 p. m.—75th meridian.

ATLANTA DISTRICT.

	Maximum	Minimum	Temp.	Rainfall.
Atlanta, Ga.	83	69	74
Anderson, S. C.	84	66	73
Charleston, S. C.	84	69	70
Columbia, Ga.	86	74	70
Chattanooga, Tenn.	77	70	69
Gainesville, Ga.	88	68	70
Montgomery, Ala.	89	73	75
Griffin, Ga.	89	73	75
Macon, Ga.	90	78	70
Newnan, Ga.	92	78	70
Sparta, Ga.	91	70	69
Toccoa, Ga.	86	65	65
West Point, Ga.	88	72	70

J. P. STEVENS,
WATCHES,

47 Whitehall St.

Telephone 451.

12 pounds O. L. Candy.

15 pounds Granulated Sugar.

50 pounds Powdered Flour.

5 Cans Eagle Oatmeal.

15 pounds Head Rice.

20 pounds Fine Rice.

15 pounds Grate.

Lemons in Boxes.

15 pounds Head Rice.

15 pounds Head Rice.

I am determined to give fresh goods cheaper than the lowest for the cash. I keep no books, credit to one, no money and save you 20 per cent.

I will give three cents a piece for small box.

Be sure of my number—118 Whitehall street.

CHAS. C. THORN,

8th page, 17.

Dissolution of Copartnership.

THE FIRM OF SCOVILLE & BEERMANN IS

this day dissolved by mutual consent. Levi W.

Scoville withdrawing from the firm and Charles

Beermann and Joseph Thompson assume all liabilities of Scoville & Beermann. The H. L. Kimball

House will hereafter be kept by Charles Beermann and Company.

CHARLES BEERMANN,

JOSEPH THOMPSON.

Atlanta, Ga., August 30, 1886.

I desire to return to my profound thanks to the public for their favor and support.

K. Kimball House Co. for many courtesies; and to wish for my friends who succeed to the business of Scoville & Beermann, a continuance of the liberal and kind treatment.

L. W. SCOVILLE,

CHARLES BEERMANN,

JOSEPH THOMPSON.

The undersigned have this day formed a partnership under the name and firm style of Charles

Beermann & Co., for the purpose of conducting the

H. L. Kimball House.

CHARLES BEERMANN,

JOSEPH THOMPSON.

August 30th, 1886.

JUST RECEIVED, A SHIPMENT

NEW ERA BEER

Brewed from malt and hops. It is the best substitute for alcoholic drinks ever invented, and at the same time has all the nutritious and tonic properties. It is for nervous and debilitated persons for the strength giving power it contains, and for nursing mothers.

HIGHLY RECOMMENDED BY PHYSICIANS

Invaluable for convalescents to come with it.

From numerous chemical analyses it has been found free from alcohol.

BOTTLED AND WOKE BY PHILIP BREITEN-

BUHL, Sole Agent, 62 Marietta street.

FINE DOMESTIC WINES A SPECIALTY.

16 SEP 24

G. S. MAY,

Successor to LaFontaine & May.

FINE WOOD MANTELS

Send for Catalogue and price list.

Sp 139 WEST MITCHELL STREET.

CHATTANOOGA, TENN.,

THE FUTURE GREAT CITY OF THE SOUTH.

Send for our Standard Hand Book, free.

Correspondence solicited.

SOUTHERN LAND AND LOAN CO.,

Sp The Chattanooga Real Estate Headquarters.

Meetings.

Attention Royal Arch Masons.

Mr. Z. C. Stockell, Chapter No. 16 at 630 o'clock Tuesday night, will be held in the work in the Most Excellent and Royal

Arch Degree. All Royal Arch Masons

in good standing invited.

H. C. STOCKELL, H. P.

THE BLOODY BLADE.

WORK OF THE KNIFE IN ATLANTA THE PAST WEEK.

A Railroad Watchman Has a Hard and Bloody Fight With a Car Burglar—Clock, the Young Georgia, Will More Than Likely Die—Smith Still at Large—A Negro Knifed.

John Odum, who was working as night watchman in the Georgia railroad yards last night as a substitute for Watchman Tuggee, was assaulted and seriously knifed by a car breaker, yesterday morning about six o'clock.

Mr. Odum's wounds, though not dangerous, are quite serious.

Soon after day dawned yesterday morning, Mr. Odum left the upper part of the yard for his last trip through the lower, and when near the small street cotton compressor, the watchman thought he saw one enter a car on a side track, and approached cautiously. Just before reaching the car he saw plainly that the seal and lock had been broken. This satisfied him that his eyes had not deceived him, and he was extracting the knife to capture him. Carefully slipping up to the car, the watchman began pushing the door to in order to imprison the thief until help could be secured. The thief, until then unknown to him, sprang out of the door and fled.

"I was not vicious."

"I was not vicious once of the day I ever grew in anybody. One day a small boy came with a mouth organ, from which he was extracting the most shocking discord, and I heard him say: 'That dog always growls every time I go by here playing my harp.' The dog rose ten points in my respect at once."

"Was he a valuable dog?"

"As utterly useless as he was harmless, but the children were devoted to him, and he was an adorable playfellow. But the matters not with the dog, he was, it is true, the prop of the thing. I was in the position of little Tommie Turner. Tom was coming up the street looking a little the worse for wear, when a gentleman asked him what was the matter. 'Bill Smith said my sister was red-headed, and I climbed him.'

"Well, Tom, is your sister red-headed?"

"Course not—ain't got a sister; it was just the principle of the thing."

"Now, that's just the point that was just that dog was not the cause of the thing. Three dogs within three days, and three doors of each other, showed that some one is systematically at work in the neighborhood, and if he can be detected he should be punished for malicious mischief."

A COLORED MILITARY ENCAMPMENT.

The Colored Companies of Atlanta Arranging an Encampment.

The colored military companies of Atlanta are just now arranging for a grand military encampment and prize drill to take place at Atlanta baseball park, on the 20th of September.

Jackson McHenry, captain of the Governor's Volunteers and Andrew Hill, captain of the Fulton Guards, have the matter in hand.

Augusta, Chattanooga, Macon, Savannah, Charleston, Nashville, Knoxville, Memphis and Montgomery will be represented in the camp.

Companies from each of these towns have applied by letter to Captain McHenry for a place in the drill and for the right to march in the encampment to be present.

Atlanta will be represented by five companies, the Governor's Volunteer, the Georgia Cadets, the Fulton Guards, the Washington Guards and the Atlanta Artillery. Three prizes will be awarded. One of one hundred dollars to the best drilled company, one of fifty dollars to the next best, and twenty-five dollars to the best band.

ONE BOY CUTS ANOTHER.

Bob Love, the small negro boy who was arrested late Sunday night by Patrolmen Henton and Mercer and booked for disorderly conduct, was arraigned in police court yesterday morning.

The evidence adduced in the trial showed that Love is a blood thirsty, hardened wretch.

Late Sunday night Love and several small boys met in a house on Wheat street, where they amused themselves by throwing chuck-a-luck and dice for small change. During the evening Love and one of his companions had a fight with the other boy.

Wright, who was about the age of Love, was also present. Love and Wright had a fight with the other boy.

During the fight Wright cut off the boy's nose and the physicians thought he was dying.

His pulse had almost disappeared at midnight, and the physicians are not certain that he will last until morning. Smith, the man who dressed Wright's wounds say that he will not be able to get about for several days. His wounds are considered dangerous, but are of such a character as will prevent Wright from moving about without great pain. One wound is in his left shoulder blade and the other near the spine.

He WILL Likely Die.

Herman Gluck, the young man who was stabbed Sunday afternoon by Tom Smith, was in a dying condition last night, and the physicians at the hospital are predicting his early death.

Gluck rested very well from midnight Sunday until late yesterday morning. Soon after waking he began to show signs of a fever and by noon was in a high fever.

The physicians who attended him thought he was dying.

Judge Anderson, the man who dressed Wright's wounds, said that he is quite uneasy.

Every effort will be made to accomplish his arrest.

He IS Still in Jail.

Ellison, the young man whom the jury of inquest charged with killing Bart Wall, is still in jail, and will remain there, for the present at least.

Ellison's attorney is preparing slowly for a preliminary trial, and will ask for one probably the last of this week or the first of next week.

Captain Crim is still pursuing his line of testimony, and every day is adding to his story.

The undersigned received a letter containing some very material links in the chain if the statements made therein are true.

The statements in the letter will be given a careful and thorough investigation, however, before they are used as evidence against the prisoner.

Ellison is quite uneasy, but it is plain to all who met him that he is quite uneasy.

He declined to converse with any one at all about the killing, and refused to mingle with the other prisoners in jail.